

It is done when everything holds.

You spend hundreds of hours on your orders. Often it is a hard work. Don't let yourself be unpleasantly surprised with something unexpected during a final mounting.

Join any materials hardly, reliably and at the same time easily and quickly.

- Can glue even difficult material
- Thanks to high starting adhesion it is holding immediately
- Even for wet surfaces
- Usable in a workshop, at home, or in a garden.
- Without solvents
